MIDPOINT Smash Cut

The perfect place to develop your web series

"Short-form series are an exercise in narrative efficiency."

Sullivan LePostec, tutor

"Telling a serialized story with very limited means is an artform of its own."

Kirsten Loose, tutor

MIDPOINT Smash Cut is a project-based program for creators of short-form series (up to 20 mins per episode) coming from the Central and Eastern European region.

The training is designed to help participants to define series concept, outline pilot script and season and also train and explain the specifics of short-form series and the difference to long-form series in storytelling.

Smash Cut offers expert lectures, intensive group works with tutors Kirsten Loose and Sullivan Le Postec as well as in-depth individual consultations with several guest tutors.

The participants will also be actively writing during the workshop days, under the supervision of the tutors.
